CELEBRATION FOR PIONEERS ASSURED IN LOCAL PROJECT

City May Join Ontario With Event, But Historical Party Here Certain

CHAMBER TALKS OF PLAN Committees Will Start Work Soon With June Set As Tentative Date

That Upland will have a pioneer celebration or some program honoring the county pioneers with the Madonna of the Trail monument as a central figure in the social program was indicated today.

This historic event here may be celebrated with the second presentation of the "First Californians," a musical pageant but, regardless of what the plans are for the presentation of the pageant again, Upland will have its own celebration, according to indications.

Suggested by P. H. McQuillen and others several weeks ago at the two cities present their historic events during the same period, the plan has been considered and at the meeting of the chamber of commerce Wednesday noon, further consideration was given to the project.

Due to the indefinite situation morning the presentation of the musical event, however, the local leaders definitely planned to go ahead with the Upland project.

Early in June was the tentative date set for the holding of some event in honor of the pioneer men and women. Euclid avenue probably will be the scene for such a celebration and get-together of persons whose California history goes back to the days of a road and uncultivated territory.

The San Bernardino Pioneer society has given Clair E. Kirk, chamber secretary, assurance that members are looking forward to participating in the event.

Glenn D. Smith, head of the chamber association committee, has been seeking to bring the group together to consider whether or not the "First Californians," will be presented the second time and if so, at what place. An outdoor amphitheater has been considered as the site for the event.

It is known, however, that due to the amount of money required, a pageant may not be presented this year.

Due to this uncertainty the Upland group decided to plan on the chamber celebration here.

Within a short time, committees will probably be named to carry the burden of planning for the event.

A. V. W. Delegates Look to Convention

Two Uplanders and one Ontario were today looking forward to the state convention of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, to be held in Sacramento May 1, 2 and 3.

W. F. Roth and Dave L. Vassender, Upland, and C. C. Stevens, Ontario, will represent the local chapter, of which Mr. Roth is the ad. A. E. Clausen, also of Upland, is alternate.

Supply Room For Guard Is Ready

Quarters for the supply sergeant of the national guard company, recently established in Ontario, have been fitted up for use in the liberal arts building at Upland.

The room was leased from the Upland officials for the military.

Recognizing the value of the activities of such splendid organizations as yours, we feel honored in having our city selected for your meeting.

Warning Given of Dog Poisoner in the City of Upland

A dog poisoner is active in Upland, his nefarious work having been discovered this week in the northeast section of the city, according to Chief J. F. Sawyer. A warning was issued this morning by Chief Sawyer to all parents to keep a close watch on their yards and to instruct their children not to touch any piece of meat they might find.

In three instances poisoned wieners have been found in yards in the vicinity of Twelfth and West streets. One dog that ate some of the meat became blind and several chickens fell dead when they ate the wieners.

Chief Sawyer said that any baby or small child is likely to attempt to eat what they pick up and poisoned meat or any other food thrown into yards is endangering the lives of children.

There is a heavy penalty, the chief pointed out, for putting out poison without permission.

DELEGATES NAMED FOR CONVENTION

Mary Brainard Tent Selects Three Delegates to Riverside Patriotic Meet

With the best attendance of the membership noted for some time, Mary Brainard Tent, Daughters of Veterans, held a regular session Thursday night at the Legion clubhouse, Mrs. Mary Haddow presiding.

Mrs. Elita Wright, and Miss Pree reported on the federated meeting held last week in Huntington Park.

Mr. Thompson is a delegate from the Orange Belt council, Isaac Walton league, to the national convention of the group in Chicago. From Upland they will go to Amarillo, Texas, where they will visit Mr. Thompson's mother and sister and where Mrs. Thompson will remain during the convention.

They plan to leave here Wednesday. A week later the convention opens and it will close on April 26. Two weeks from the day they leave, they expect to return.

$2500 BOYS WORK FUND SOUGHT FOR VARIED ACTIVITY

Definite Plans For Annual Canvass Made as Leaders See Need

SCOUTS WILL GET AID

1106 Girls Included in Group That Will Benefit From Funds, Support

At a meeting of the committee of the Upland Boys and Girls Work Organization on Tuesday afternoon plans were formulated for the annual solicitation of funds for this worthy purpose. The money raised for the girls is expended through the Chaffey Community Girls Organization, while money for the boys' fund is disbursed by the Old Baldy council of the Boy Scouts. The welfare money is expended by the ladies of the Upland Welfare organization.

During the past year the number of leaders and girls who participated in the activities of the Chaffey Community Girls Organization was 1106, while Upland has had 85 Boy Scouts during the year, and the Upland district a total of 152 Boy Scouts. The amount this district is asked to raise for the coming year's activities is $2500. Letters and subscription blanks will be mailed in about ten days and in the meantime the matter will be presented before the various churches and service clubs of the city. This has heretofore been the only method of solicitation and while Upland last year did not quite meet the desired goal, it is hoped they will more than do so this year. This is a splendid community service, character building and assures parents that when their boys and girls are away from home in these activities they are among leaders and other associates who are desirable companions.

L. R. Bradley is chairman of this committee. R. C. Norton is treasurer, and Ed. Thudum, secretary.

The communities of Alta Loma, Etiwanda, Cucamonga and Fontana will be engaged in a similar campaign at the same time as Upland.

JUDGING TEAM FOR CHAFFEY SELECTED

Three Uplanders Named For Competition at Fontana Tomorrow

Names of the Chaffey students who will seek to win additional laurels in judging activities were announced by Charles A. Perrin, director of student projects.

Fontana will be the scene tomorrow of the Southern California high school judging contest and the winning school will send a team to San Louis Obispo for the state finals.

Robert Lutz, Leonard Hibbs and Arthur West are Upland's only representatives on the four teams. Lutz and West and Horace Williams comprise the stock judging team and Hibbs, Fletcher Palmer and Wilson Zyrd are the dairy judges. The poultry team is composed of Ira Rutledge, Steve Ritcher and Van Fleet.

The tree judges include Harold Miller, Bill Latimer and James Tate.

Petty Theft Plea Sends Man to Jail

Glenn Robert Vaughn is today in the county jail and will be there for six months, according to his sentence given by Judge George R. Crane this week. He pleaded guilty to five counts of petty theft.

Among his loot were two prize chickens from the L. N. Kirk poultry yard, several boxes of oranges and garments, stolen from wash lines.

District Convention of Business And Professional Women Here

MISS ETHEL CARROLL President Southern District, Calif. Fed. B. P. W. Clubs

With three events scheduled, Upland will entertain tomorrow one of the largest gatherings of women active in business and professional life of the Southland ever to assemble in the city, when approximately 250 members of Business and Professional Women's clubs meet here for the convention of Southern District, California Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs.

In the afternoon there will be a tea and reception for the delegates at the home of Mrs. F. H. Manker, followed by the business meeting of the executive board at Beulah college.

The Upland Business and Professional Women's club, as hostess, has received the hearty cooperation of the business men and city officials in welcoming the district club women, who will represent clubs from Oxnard to San Diego.

Headquarters for the convention will be the clubhouse of the Upland Woman's club and it is there the dinner and program will be held, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Careful preparations have been made for the dinner which is expected to be a brilliant social affair.

Two special features of the well arranged program will be an address by DeWitt V. Hutchings, manager of the Riverside Mission Inn, his subject being "The Spirit of the Mission Inn," and vocal selections by Charles Ross, popular baritone of Pomona. There also will be greetings and addresses by local and district club officials.

Approximately 200 more cars of naves are in the district and will be shipped between now and the latter part of the month, according to indications. Some of the local packing houses will bring their navel season to close next week.

Shipments of oranges this week will total about 125 cars, according to a report at the local office. Up to April 1, 808 cars had been taken from the district. During the first week of the month 114 cars were shipped.

Throughout the district, growers and managers of the associations are pleased with the prices that have prevailed. At times some of the packing houses were operating in large crews to send the fruit out and take advantage of the high prices in the east.

The figures given out by Mr. Harlow were not complete and unofficial, but give a picture of what the citrus situation has been.

Telephone Chamber If Official Caller Has Missed, Is Request

If Uplanders have not been approached by an official census taker, they will be doing themselves and the community a great benefit if they get in touch with the enumerators before Wednesday, it was announced today in an appeal for cooperation.

In most cases everyone is co-operating, but the group of persons getting the official information find that many people are not at home.

No census is to be taken in the city limits after Wednesday. As it is important for Upland to get all of its residents registered, an appeal is issued.

R. B. Bordwell, in charge of the federal census taking here, requests that all persons who expect to be out of town between now and Wednesday notify the chamber of commerce, phone 8, and give their address and the time they will be at home for enumeration.

Attend Meeting of Federal Association

Postmaster L. N. Kirk and H. C. Van Dusen of the local office, went to Colton Tuesday night to attend a meeting of Riverside and San Bernardino Federal Businessmen's association.

The meeting was held in the Colton Woman's club house, and an excellent dinner was served by the club women.

The speaker of the evening was David Vasbinder of Upland, president of the Orange Belt Council Izak Walton league. Mr. Vasbinder reviewed the work of the league in conservation of wild life and protection of forest areas, and told of projects the league hopes to accomplish in the future.

NAVEL SEASON TO CLOSE SOON WITH 1240 CARS MOVED

Prices Up to Expectations, But Quantity Under Early Figures

VALENCIAS ARE READY

Most Packing Houses Will Finish Soon and New Crop Is Next

As the orange navel season was drawing to a close, officials of the Ontario-Cucamonga Fruit Exchange today sized up the season and predicted that approximately 1247 cars of oranges and more than 410 cars of lemons will have gone to world markets from this district.

In quantity, not quite up to pre-season predictions, but in price equal to what was expected, the current season will net local growers a return in keeping with this district's reputation as a highly profitable citrus district, according to reports.

The Valencia orange picking packing and shipping may start immediately after the close of the navel season, although this will not be known definitely until later, Harry Harlow, manager of the O-K office here, said.

Approximately 200 more cars of naves are in the district and will be shipped between now and the latter part of the month, according to indications. Some of the local packing houses will bring their navel season to close next week.

Monday Is Voting Day: The News to Give Out Returns

One chance in two years for people to express their preference as to who shall be on the Upland city council comes Monday. Of the eight candidates three are to be elected. There will be two polling places, at the Boy Scout lodge on Third avenue and in the police headquarters, Second avenue.

On page three of The Upland News today there are brief statements concerning the candidates and a description of precinct boundaries, enabling the voters to determine at which poll they are to vote.

Polls open at 6 o'clock in the morning and will close at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Within half an hour after the polls close, The Upland News will start giving unofficial standings of the candidates. As the counting proceeds, The Upland News will tell of the progress being made. Results of the count will be given to all persons who telephone Upland 29. This service will be maintained until the calls cease.

LEGION MEN WILL SEE BODENHAMER

Santa Ana Meeting Monday To Be Attended by Group From Here

Many Upland American Legion men were today planning to see O. L. Bodenhamer, national commander, in Santa Ana Monday night. Reservations for the dinner at which Mr. Bodenhamer will be the speaker, are to be made with Francis Rogers, adjutant of the local post.

The head of the ex-service organization is making a tour of the southland and the Santa Ana meeting was selected by the group here as the best one to attend.

The meeting is open to everyone. William Larkin will be in charge of the Legion stag party April 21, at which a banquet will be served by the house committee.

Nine Uplanders were at the county council meeting at San Bernardino Tuesday night. Several are planning to attend the tri-county meeting.

Tenth Street P.-T.A. Elects Officers at Wednesday Meeting

Two enjoyable vocal numbers were given by Misses Phyllis Moore, Sarah Louise O'Brien and Eleanor Moses, the Chaffey trio, accompanied by Dorothy Hill. The program included two delightful recitations by little Miriam Settle.

Reports marked the quarterly meeting Thursday morning of the Upland chapter, American Red Cross held in the Upland library, the chapter president, Mrs. W. B. West, presiding.

A letter from the Upland chamber of commerce offering the courtesy of the facilities of the new office was read and appreciative acceptance voiced.

AUTOMATIC PHONE SYSTEM IS BEING CONSIDERED HERE

Local Company Looks to Future and Studies What Will Be Needed

CLUB HEARS MR. TUTTLE

Cucamonga Group Protests the Present System Used in Directory

Looking "to tomorrow and seeking to prepare for it," the officials of the Ontario-Upland Telephone company are today considering various changes in the service in Upland and the West end.

Installation of automatic telephone service, now in use in the metropolitan area, is one possibility. Establishment of a telephone exchange to serve the Cucamonga and Alta Loma territory is another possibility.

Charles L. Tuttle, manager of the company, spoke at the meeting of the Cucamonga Service club in The Sycamores Tuesday night and brought to light some of the things that may be realized in the future. No estimate as to the number of years before there will be any drastic change was made by Mr. Tuttle.

Asked to appear before the group concerning the present listing of Cucamonga and Alta Loma telephone subscribers in the telephone directory, Mr. Tuttle explained the intricate system of communication and some of the problems confronted in compiling the information in the directory.

He emphasized repeatedly that the telephone company in the issuance of its directory is in no way trying to make a mailing list or street directory of the subscribers. Information contained in the book is put there solely in the interests of serving the users of the telephone.

The fact that the community is growing is reason for the telephone officials to consider the needs of the future and the dial system of connecting parties, instead of the present operator system, is one feature of the possibilities, Mr. Tuttle explained. He gave no estimate of the cost, indicating that the consideration of the change had not progressed that far.

He's Got It All Figured Out For You

After our little "wisecrack" about how those "newspaper fellers" arrived at their figures regarding "million dollar rains," one of our good subscribers brought in an article written by Harold E. Wahlberg, farm advisor in Orange county, who has the thing figured down to a fine point. Mr. Wahlberg first got the basis of water costs by taking the cost for four years on seventy-five citrus groves in Orange county, which showed 70¢ per acre, plus spreading charges of 90¢ an acre, making an average total of $1.60 per acre inch of irrigation water, which he also figures as the equivalent of an inch of rain spread over an acre. In this figure he includes also the cost of pumping, plus the cost of preparing the land, such as horse or tractor charges and man labor.

In Orange county, states Mr. Wahlberg, there are about 500,000 acres, of which 60 per cent is farmed and 40 per cent is in watersheds. Figuring the value of an inch of water on the 300,000 acres at $1.60 per acre makes the total value $480,000 for one inch of rainfall. If you had a five-inch rainfall you can figure the value of the water at $2,400,000.

Commenting still further, the writer says in his article in the Sunday Los Angeles Times: "The watersheds of the county cover about 200,000 acres. A five-inch rain on this area is equal to 1,000,000 acre-inches of water. It is difficult to say what this water is worth. We know that we are largely dependent on the seepage and runoff waters to replenish our underground reservoirs. If only 25 per cent of the precipitation finally gets to the underground strata from which we pump or draw our supplies, that will aggregate 250,000 acre-inches. It should be worth 70 cents per acre-inch to have it available for irrigation purposes. At that rate, we should credit the storm with another $175,000. It is generally known that the precipitation in the higher elevations of the watersheds is almost double that of the valley plain, so this figure is very conservative. A five-inch rain in Orange county, therefore, has an intrinsic value of over $2,575,000, or $21 per capita, if the last census, indicating a population of 120,000 persons, is correct."

Now you citrus growers of this community should be able to sit down and figure how much you make every time it rains.

Hon. James Rolph, Sr., who has been mayor of San Francisco for the past twenty years, has announced as a Republican candidate for governor of California at the coming primary. Says Mr. Rolph's announcement, in part: "Encouragement from citizens of every county in the state justifies this decision and is an expression of confidence which gives me substantial hope of success. This is my native state. To be its governor is the proper aspiration of any man who has had public experience like mine."

What Nearby Editors Have to Say

Springtime in Southern California
La Verne Leader: Does beauty ever become commonplace? Does not an abundance of things of beauty about us cause us to be so surfeited that we cannot and do not always appreciate our "land by a summer sea"? Perhaps Southern California never looked lovelier than it does just at this time. And yet how few of us have thought much about it or have revelled in the springtime beauty of flowers, of budding trees, green meadows and upland slopes. The easterner as he views for the first time our beautiful southland goes into raptures over its wondrous beauty. We Californians are so engrossed with the strenuous daily round of business and our personal affairs that we do not take time to lift our eyes to the mountain tops sparkling with ermine whiteness, or gaze in delight upon the nearby groves of orange trees, laden with golden fruit, and at the same time covered with a bridal veil of waxy white, odoriferous orange blossoms. Our orchards have arrayed themselves in blooming splendor, the resurrection time of awakening life that is repeated to us year by year, and we fail to understand its significance or drink in its beauty. Oh! what dull clouds we are that we cannot better comprehend the wondrous workings of the Creator as He smiles upon us in the beauties of His creative works.

Not a Chance
Hemet News: Calvin Coolidge's recent visit to Hollywood has been followed by unexpected and sensational developments back in Northampton, Mass., according to the dispatches this week. Hold your breath! Mr. Coolidge has purchased a 16-room house surrounded by a nine-acre estate. The house has four bathrooms, an elevator, extension telephones, etc.

There are also a private swimming pool, tennis courts, a golf course and a gymnasium in which will be stabled the former President's famous electric hobbyhorse. This would seem to be ample evidence that Mr. Coolidge has abandoned all thought of again taking up his residence in the White House. Wise politician, he surely knows that no man who has a private swimming pool can be elected to the presidency if the public finds it out. And four bathrooms! Not a chance!

So Far, So Good

Claremont Courier: And now that rocks have been removed from many vacant lots and even parkways leveled in spots, why stop there?

Why not sow a seed or two of some plant that will replace the jimson and other noxious weeds? There's the California flower, the poppy. Give the poppy half a chance and he'll add $100 to the looks of a vacant lot. Or there's a somewhat native clover which looks pleasing. Or the fern grass that grows so profusely on Indian Hill.

Listen to the Mocking Bird

Claremont Courier: Turn off the radio awhile. The mocking bird has begun broadcasting. He is advertising to be sure—but it is intended primarily for his lady love. Telling her it is springtime and nesting time and that there will soon be family cares. But he is cheerful about it, almost hilarious.

The mockingbird is not modest about his singing. He seeks the limelight—a high telephone pole or house-top, and he composes as well as executes—cadenzas, cadences, andantes, crescendos, mournful lilting melodies from morn till night when he feels just right. Of course his midnight serenades and his offerings at dawn are a little disconcerting to light or nervous sleepers, but you forgive him just as you do any ardent lover who is making a fool of himself. That's his idea of a lullaby.

What Did the Cow Think?

Pomona Progress-Bulletin: Solomon was quite wrong. There is always something new under the sun. If you doubt it, consider how a cow at St. Louis was enticed into an airplane, carried high above the earth and there milked, surrounded by pilots, white clouds and limitless space.

The milk, we learn, was put in buckets and tossed out the window—the buckets being attached to parachutes so that they might come down properly.

All of this is highly instructive and not a little amusing. But the part that would interest us most of all is precisely the part we can never find out anything about. It is: What did the cow think of it all? Surely she must have thought something. The cow that jumped over the moon had nothing on her.

Candidates Express Views On Administration Policies

8 GIVE REPLIES TO CITY QUERIES

Plans For Future, If Elected, Given; Park Site Favored by Some

Short word glimpses of the candidates for the city council at the election Monday are given here as a means of acquainting the voters with the plans and ideas of the men.

All of the eight are probably known personally to almost every voter in the city, but the following summaries of their views will serve to present the group in a verbal picture just before election.

The same questions were asked each candidate by The Upland News. The order of the articles here is the same order as the names of the candidates will appear on the official ballot Monday.

Paul Adams

Coming to Upland 11 years ago, Paul Adams became actively interested in civic affairs and was at one time commander of the local post of the American Legion.

He has in mind no special policy or program for the city, but he will, if elected, immediately begin an intensive study of the local situation and seek to bring about certain improvements, he said.

Need for community playground or park is very apparent, he said, in explaining that ways and means of securing of a site for such a project would be one of his main considerations.

Re-adjustment of valuations in the tax fixing procedure is also a need Mr. Adams sees.

Employment of local persons and use of local materials at all possible times would be one rule he would follow, he declared.

While not a taxpayer to the city of Upland, Mr. Adams owns a grove near here.

Godfrey Andreas

Godfrey Andreas believes in making Upland progressive by securing a site for a municipal park, in engaging a local man for city attorney, in re-adjustment of the business tax and in the continuance of the band concerts.

If he is elected to the city council, he will seek to bring about improvements, he said, but explained that he would not suggest any changes until he became familiar with the financial situation and studied the city's budget.

"I'll do what the public wants and what is the right thing for the city," he declared.

Mr. Andreas has been a resident of Upland for 30 years and in that time has taken an active interest in the city and the community development. At present he is a director of the San Antonio Water company, and has served as a director of the Ontario-Upland Elks lodge. He is a taxpayer to the city.

William F. Atchley

William F. Atchley is elected a councilman he will seek to handle the city's business just like he would if it was his own business.

Here Are Precinct Boundaries For Voting In Coming City Election

Voting at the city election on April 14 will be at only two places, the police station on Second avenue and the Boy Scout lodge on Third avenue. For county and state elections the city has eight precincts and the precincts have been consolidated for the April 14 voting.

Precincts regularly numbered 2, 4, 6 and 8 have been consolidated into what is called precinct "A," with the voting in this group to be at the police station, 126 Second avenue.

Precincts 1, 3, 5 and 7 have been consolidated into precinct "B," the polling place to be at the Boy Scout lodge, formerly the "Y" hut.

So that voters may be able to determine in what regular precinct they live and where they are to vote April 14, The Upland News is publishing the precinct boundaries.

The precincts consolidated into the "A" precinct, with voting at the police station, are described as follows:

Precinct No. 2 includes all residents between south of the center line of Fourteenth street and the south city limits, west of Euclid avenue.

Precinct No. 4 includes those living between Euclid and Third avenues, and Eleventh and Tenth streets.

Precinct No. 6 takes in that property between Euclid and Third avenues and Tenth and Ninth streets.

Precinct No. 8—The west boundary is Third avenue from Tenth to Ninth streets, with the line extended west on Ninth street to Euclid avenue, and south on Euclid to "A" street. The south boundary extends on "A" street from Euclid avenue east to Campus avenue. The east boundary is from "A" street north on Campus avenue to the P. E. tracks, and west on the P. E. tracks to Sixth avenue, and north on Sixth avenue from the tracks to Tenth street. The north boundary is Tenth street ness, he said.

As to definite policies he would follow or a definite program of improvement he would suggest for the city, he has not given the matter consideration. He explained that upon being elected he would at once study the situation and do for the city what he would do if the business was his own.

He is recognized as the outstanding honey producer in the southland, being county apiary inspector, U. S. Federal honey grader, and honey inspector for the federal government in rehabilitation cases. He is also esteemed lecturing knight of the Elks lodge and has served several terms as director of the chamber of commerce. Some of the city's best exhibits at the Orange Show were suggested or created by Mr. Atchley.

The council candidate is a taxpayer to the city.

Guy Clark

Serious study of the tax situation and the possible improvements that might be made in the city will be given by Guy Clark if he is elected a city councilman.

from Third to Sixth avenues.

The precincts consolidated into the "B" precinct, with voting at the Boy Scout lodge, are described as follows:

Precinct No. 1 includes every one north of the center line of Fourteenth street.

Precinct No. 3 northern boundary is the center line of East Fourteenth street. The western boundary is Euclid avenue south to Eleventh street, and east on Eleventh street to Third avenue, and south on Third avenue to Tenth street. The southern boundary starts at Third avenue and Tenth street, going east to Campus avenue, north on Campus to Eleventh street, and east on Eleventh street to the city limits.

Precinct No. 5 starts with the northern boundary being Eleventh street east to the city limits. The western line is Campus avenue, starting at Eleventh street, south to Tenth street, west on Tenth to Sixth avenue, and south on Sixth to the P. E. tracks. The southern boundary is the P. E. tracks, starting at Sixth avenue until the tracks intersect with Tenth street, where the boundary line follows Tenth street to the east city limits.

Precinct No. 7 has a northern boundary that starts on Tenth street at Third avenue going east to Sixth avenue, south on Sixth to the P. E. tracks, and east on the tracks to Tenth street, and out Tenth to the eastern city limits. The western boundary is south on Campus from the P. E. tracks to the city limits. The southern boundary is the city line, and the eastern boundary is the east city limits.

Note—

This description of the precinct limits is printed the second time for the use of those who have not determined at what polling place, they are to cast a vote Monday.

Fletcher H. Manker

Retiree to speak about his own past record, Fletcher H. Manker is known by Uplanders through his long residence here and his active service in the community.

This is the first time he has permitted his name to be used in connection with a city election and if he is elected, he will seek to administer the city funds as judiciously as he would if they were his own funds.

A resident of Upland for more than 30 years, Mr. Manker was one of the leaders in forming the volunteer fire department, assisted in forming the Magnolia Building and Loan association, has been and is at present a director of the chamber of commerce. He has served as president of this civic group.

While he has certain hopes for improvement of the city, he will first give intensive study to ways and means of getting sufficient funds for improvements, without bringing an additional burden on the taxpayers.

Mr. Manker is a taxpayer.

L. E. Moser

After being on the council for property owner and taxpayer.

C. K. Francisco

City taxes should not be increased except for some definite improvement, is the expressed belief of C. K. Francisco. After serving on the council for 12 consecutive years, Mr. Francisco said he was familiar with the financial situation and with what was needed.

He does not contemplate suggesting any change in the city's policy, if he is elected, and he will closely watch the expenditures and seek to keep the taxes as low as possible, he said.

He predicted that the public will want a site for a city park and that a bond issue will be asked to get the improvement. He said he would be in favor of such a proposition.

Mr. Francisco first came to Upland 30 years ago and has been a taxpayer ever since. He is secretary of the I. O. O. F. lodge and has been a member of the Upland volunteer fire department for 17 years.

A. H. Johnson

A. H. Johnson, councilman for 16 years, said that he had no special program for the city other than what has been followed during his tenure of office. As long as the people want the various improvements there can be no reduction in taxes, he said, although he will, as he always has, closely watch the city expenditures.

"The city has never lost a cent due to crookedness of its employees during the time I have been on the council and that is more than many of the cities can say," Mr. Johnson declared.

Twenty-five years ago he came to Upland and has taken an active interest in the city. He is a member of the board of trustees of the Methodist church and on the advisory board of the Bank of America. During all of his residence here he has been a taxpayer.

Mr. Johnson said that the public can judge what he will do in the future by what he has done in the past.

The last of the organ vespers services will be held this Wednesday afternoon at 4:30.

The pastor invites a communicant's class to meet at 4 on Wednesday, closing in time for the vespers. A number are planning to unite with the church on Easter morning and the pastor would appreciate the pleasure of talking to these about the meaning of such a step in the Christian life.

Speakers' Clubs of Two Cities Plan Joint Meeting Here

The Ontario Toastmistress club will meet with the Upland Hostess club at a dinner session in Crowell hall on Monday evening, April 21, the announcement of the acceptance by the Ontario club of the invitation recently extended by the Upland club being made at the dinner meeting of the local club in Crowell hall Monday night.

During the business meeting presided over by the president, Mrs. W. F. Kitchel, plans were made for the joint meeting. Anyone interested in the work of these clubs will be welcome to attend and all who expect to do so are asked to make reservations with the secretary, Mrs. Geo. W. West.

Three enjoyable addresses featured Monday night's meeting, which was attended by a number of members and several guests, who were introduced during the dinner.

Mrs. Samuel L. Lamb presided as hostess of the evening and introduced the speakers.

Mrs. F. H. Manker, who has served the public in various capacities for the past 21 years, spoke on "The Duties and Privileges of Citizenship," illustrating her talk with incidents and problems encountered in her own personal experience. Her talk was not only instructive but also very interesting. Mrs. Manker's critic was Miss Helen Hilty.

Mrs. W. B. West was the second speaker and following her instructions to provide light entertainment, she very cleverly did so, making a snappy and witty talk which delighted her audience. Her critic was Mrs. M. H. Bailey.

A comprehensive and very interesting review of Edna Ferber's new book, "Cimarron," was ably presented by Mrs. George W. West. The book deals with the stirring days of the old Indian Territory, its cattle rustling, Indian fighting days, and its settlement and development up to the time of the discovery of oil, and Mrs. West made of her review a fascinating story. Mrs. Ralph Alquist was her critic and Miss Lois LeBaron Avery, club advisor, made constructive criticism of the three speeches.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Ralph Alquist, Miss Lois LeBaron Avery, Mrs. Mark H. Bailey and her guest, Mrs. Paul Fretrow, Mrs. Arthur Gunn, Miss Sinabel Hart, Miss Helen Hilty, Mrs. W. F. Kitchel and her guest, Miss Betty Kitchel, Mrs. S. L. Lamb, Mrs. A. E. MacLaren and her guest, Miss Bera Griswold, Mrs. Geo. W. West and her guest, Mrs. Roy Ellis, Mrs. W. B. West, and Mrs. F. H. Manker.

La Estrella Auxiliary Enjoys Busy Meeting

A very satisfactory amount of work was accomplished Wednesday at a meeting of La Estrella auxiliary, Order Eastern Star, when 20 of the members held an all day session. Meeting first at the Masonic temple, the members joined in partaking of a delicious contributed dish luncheon. After the noon hour the entire group went to the home of Mrs. W. S. Avery at the Upland hotel where some of them worked on the quilt the auxiliary is making while others made surgical dressings for the San Antonio Community hospital.

Although the women put in the time working, their industry did not prevent them enjoying the day socially and the meeting was a pleasant as well as profitable one.

Mrs. Atchley Guest at Norconian Club Luncheon

A delightful bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. Eda Harvey of Ontario was given at the beautiful Norconian club Wednesday, the hostess being Mrs. Harvey's daughter, Miss Ruth Hazelyn of Los Angeles.

The luncheon tables were lovely with dainty appointments and floral decorations of fragrant American Beauty roses and sweet-peas.

An event not scheduled by the hostess, the making on the lake shore of a talkie motion picture, proved intensely interesting to the guests. Among the stars filming the picture were Norma Talmadge and Wanda Smith.

So fascinating were the cinema activities that the guests left off their bridge playing before completing the tourney, but scores were counted and prizes awarded to Mrs. Henry Honaker, first, and Mrs. Harvey, second.

Guests of Miss Harvey were Mrs. N. E. Troutman, Mrs. William Atchley, Mrs. Reed C. Williams and members of her mother's bridge club, Mesdames B. F. Warner, George Sell, S. H. Gardner, Andrew Henderson, Jessie Rayner, J. B. Southwell, Henry Honaker, and Mrs. Harvey.

Friends Spend Delightful Day With Leon Durhams

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Durham were most pleasantly surprised Thursday by the arrival of long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Adams and their son, G. W. Adams, member of the faculty of University of California at Los Angeles, and Mrs. Agnes Wallis, all of Los Angeles, drove up to spend the day with the Durhams, and a delightful visit resulted. The Durhams and their guests became friends while all were living in New Mexico a number of years ago.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club Enjoys Dinner

The Tuesday Evening Bridge club was pleasantly entertained at a bridge dinner given by Mrs. Frank K. Nichols at her home, 2236 Laurel avenue.

Dainty spring flowers were used effectively on the prettily appointed table and also as house decorations, and a dinner of delightful menu was served. During the evening the members found pleasant diversion about the bridge tables and at the conclusion of the playing first prize was awarded to Mrs. W. H. Craig, Jr., the consolation prize going to Mrs. E. C. Mehl.

Guests of Mrs. Nichols were: Mrs. Mehl, Mrs. Paul Bodenhamer, Mrs. Paul Adams, Mrs. R. B. Bordwell, Mrs. H. C. Moore, Mrs. Sam Rowe, Mrs. John B. Craig, Mrs. W. H. Craig, Jr., Mrs. J. F. Sawyer, Mrs. Glenn Atwood, Mrs. P. R. Daggs and Mrs. R. H. Henderson.

June Bride-Elect Honored At Miscellaneous Shower

A waffle breakfast given by Mrs. H. J. Walker at her home, 526 East Ninth street Wednesday morning, in honor of Miss Willie Tinsley, proved also to be the occasion of a shower of miscellaneous gifts for Miss Tinsley, whose marriage will occur in June.

Being a real breakfast, the waffles and accompanying dishes were served at 8 o'clock and were all the more enjoyable because of the crisp morning air.

Miss Tinsley is a member of the night staff of nurses at the San Antonio Community hospital and most of the guests were her fellow nurses. She received many lovely gifts to be used in her home-to-be.

Mrs. Walker used an effective combination of lovely roses and iris in her home decorations.

Those honoring Miss Tinsley as guests of Mrs. Walker were Mrs. C. L. Emmons, Mrs. D. E. Hayhurst, Mrs. H. Grimes, Mrs. M. Baker, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. M. Castle, Miss Leona Richardson, Miss E. Marley and Miss E. Campbell.

Miss Ethel Carroll Serves B. P. W. Clubs

Miss Carroll has served as a state or district officer for a number of years and has always given faithful and efficient service. A year ago when the Southern District was looking for a candidate for president from the northern part of the territory, Miss Carroll was the universal choice. With her characteristic energy and enthusiasm she has carried on the work of the organization successfully and has won the friendship and confidence of the members. Miss Carroll has attracted national attention to the outstanding work of the Oxnard library, where she is librarian, having developed a circulation per capita that placed the library seventh in the United States. In her work she loses no opportunity to adapt the library service to the needs of the community. Her work has been especially commended by the Men's service clubs, the city council and the public schools of Oxnard and when she was elected president of the district, the whole community joined in a reception in her honor.

CHAFFEY POLLING PLACES INCREASED

Bond Election May 16 Will Call For $450,000 For New Buildings

With twelve polling places and with the rate of interest slightly lower than previously, the second attempt to vote $450,000 in bonds for new equipment in the Chaffey district will be held May 16.

Impressed with the necessity of an organized effort in getting out the voters, proponents of the enlarged building program are optimistic over the prospects and point to next month as one of the most important in Chaffey history. The buildings are needed on the Chaffey campus, at the Upland junior high school and at Fontana, and the bonds, if voted, will carry interest at 4 1/2 per cent instead of 5 per cent.

It is sought to make the campaign and the building program strictly a Chaffey district proposition.

"We believe we should have the support of all voters in this educational program," says a statement from the Chaffey board of education.

"If the bonds are carried it is our intention to encourage local contractors, local businessmen and local workers to secure the contracts and work essential to the construction of the buildings."

The Upland polling place will be in the junior high school as on February 28. Ontario will have three instead of one polling precinct. In the February election the bond issue failed of getting the two-thirds majority by a small margin.

We believe in our own club and the work we are trying to do; we have equal confidence in your clubs and in the admirable work you are doing. And we most sincerely believe in the spirit of friendliness and cooperation fostered by our district meetings.

It is our earnest desire to make your visit in Upland a happy one and to make our meeting here one of mutual benefit, and with that thought in mind, we extend you a cordial welcome.

MARGARET H. WRIGHT,
President Upland Business and Professional Women's Club

As president of the Woman's club and past president of the Southern District Business and Professional Women's clubs, I wish to extend you a double welcome to Upland, hoping that you will enjoy your brief stay with us. The Upland Woman's club was organized some 26 years ago by a band of progressive women who, all through the years, looked forward to the time when they might give to our community a club house both beautiful and useful. Three years ago that vision was materialized and the building dedicated. We are pleased to extend the hospitality of the club house to you for the evening session and hope you will carry back with you most pleasant memories of Upland and the Woman's club house.

REVIEW OF UPLAND B. AND P. W. CLUB

Local Club Organized in May Ten Years Ago, With Five Members

A retrospective view of the life of the Business and Professional Women's club of Upland during the ten years of its existence, reveals a record of a brave beginning and a steady, progressive growth that is a source of pride to all the membership.

On Wednesday, May 5, 1920, five forward-looking women met in the Azulykit tea room for the purpose of organizing a business women's club.

Those five women, Mrs. F. H. Manker, Mrs. R. N. Leahy, Mrs. C. U. Calhoun, Mrs. F. F. Allen and Mrs. Edith Troeller, on that day laid the foundations for the club that has grown through the years, providing a common meeting ground for its members, affording an opportunity for mutual understanding that has developed into many staunch friendships, providing time and place for frequent entertaining and educational programs and pleasant social hours, and, perhaps of the greatest value, offering a medium through which the members have become closely identified with the welfare and civic interests of the city.

The club today has a thriving membership of 52 business and professional women. Besides being a member of the Upland chamber of commerce and having a member on the city's civic committee, the club has done considerable individual work in San Antonio park.

Perhaps the most outstanding accomplishment of the Upland club is the splendid library in the San Antonio Community hospital. The library shelving was erected with club funds and by contributing books and magazines the members provided the nucleus for the library and has been a consistent contributor. Recently the hospital has been provided with several dozen neatly made and very attractive light weight booklets for the patients' use. The club has a representative, Mrs. Mark H. Bailey, on the board of the Woman's Hospital Auxiliary, and recently the club as a whole was named librarian by the auxiliary.

The first official staff that gave the club its auspicious beginning included Mrs. F. H. Manker, president; Mrs. R. N. Leahy, vice-president; Mrs. C. U. Calhoun, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edith Troeller, recording secretary-treasurer; Mrs. F. F. Allen, business manager.

In the ten years the presidents who have guided the activities of the club were:

Well Known Club Woman Gives Aid

UNA R. WINTER

Past President District Fed. and Upland B. P. W. Club

One of the best known and most generally loved club members, Mrs. Winter is also one of the most untiring workers. Quietly and never with ostentation, but always with the welfare of her clubs in mind, she does much of the practical work as well as aiding and encouraging all who turn to her for advice—and they are many. Mrs. Winter was president of the Upland B. and P. W. club for two years, 1922-24, and was president of the district federation also for two years, 1926-28. She is at present president of the Upland Woman's club.

GRACE T. WRIGHT

President Los Angeles County B. and P. W. Clubs

Mrs. Wright, past president of the Hollywood Business Women's club and now president of Los Angeles county federation, has been actively associated with her husband in the "Wright-O" Studios on Hollywood boulevard. At this "studio" all kinds of stenographic work is handled and especial attention is given to the copying of manuscripts, scenarios, etc. Mrs. Wright assists in the membership work of the district when called upon and is in demand for her unique method of installing newly elected officers.

Helped Organize Club in Upland

ADDA B. MANKER

One of the organizers and the first president of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club, 1920-1921, Mrs. Manker has remained one of the club's most faithful and efficient members. Often aiding with her judicious advice and staunchly standing by during uncertain times in its early years, she has seen the club grow into a firmly established and flourishing organization. She is now serving her second term as treasurer for the district federation and was a member of the state executive board in 1927-28. Mrs. Manker is librarian of the Upland public library.

SUE BROBST

President of the Business Women's Legislative Council of California

Miss Brobst, one of the early presidents of the Southern District, still takes an active interest in the organization. During her term of office many new ideas were initiated and have been continued with great success. At present, she gives all her leisure time to the work of the Legislative Council. This Council seeks to bring about the same opportunities for women to advance in the business world as men now enjoy and advocates for "equal work, equal pay."

STORY OF GROWTH OF THIS DISTRICT

Federation of Clubs of Southern District Started in City of Los Angeles

As years are counted, Southern District, California Federation of Business and Professional Women's club is quite young, but in numbers, in achievements and in courage the organization is strong.

In May, 1919, the Business and Professional Women's clubs of Los Angeles county organized a county federation, with Florence Shindler as president, she serving for two years. From this movement in cooperative effort and pooling of community interests, there grew, through successive stages, the idea of friendly expansion. In 1923, during the presidency of Lloy Galpin, who served from 1921 to 1925, the Los Angeles County Federation outgrew its original boundaries and enlarging to include the counties of Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial, San Diego, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Mono and Inyo, became the Southern California District Federation. When in January, 1925, this organization joined the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, its status and name again were changed, it becoming and remaining the Southern District, California Federation Business and Professional Women's clubs.

During the year 1925-1926, Sue Brobst, president, the district clubs established the custom of holding monthly board meetings and in that year the executive sessions were held in Ontario, Upland, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Covina, Long Beach and Oxnard, the meeting was held acting as club or clubs of the city in which hostesses and providing entertainment.

It was at this period that the Southern Sun, a monthly club paper, was published and the Southern District directory was compiled and distributed among

Vice-President Southern District Calif. Fed. B. and P. W. Clubs

Cornelia T. Hatcher has been active in the work of women's organizations for a long time and has given freely of her time and abilities to the building up of various groups.

Previously editor of the national organ of the W. C. T. U., she the various clubs, public libraries and chambers of commerce. Anaheim, Orange county, entertained the first district convention to be held outside of Los Angeles.

Elected first in 1926 and again in 1927, Una R. Winter of Upland, served two years as district president and during that time the Federation was placed on a permanent basis and a marked increase in attendance at the monthly board meeting was noted.

Gertrude Maynard ably directed was sent to Alaska to organize temperance societies up there. When she came to Long Beach to live she went into business for herself and soon after joined the B. and P. W. club of that city; later serving as president for two years. Under her leadership the club became one of the largest and most progressive in the state. She has served the Southern District as vice-president for more than two years besides being president this year of the Woman's City club of Long Beach, a group of 2000 women. She is also the owner and manager of the Colonial Beauty Shop on West 6th St., Long Beach.

GERTRUDE C. MAYNARD,
Junior Past President Southern District B. and P. W. Clubs

Mrs. Maynard preceded Miss Carroll as president of the Southern District. She is a well-known club woman and business executive, being for many years connected with the Jones Book store of Los Angeles. She now holds the position of vice-president and treasurer of that firm; is a past president of the Sororist club, and at present a District Commissioner of the Girl Scouts.

J. FRANCES EMANS,
Editor "California Woman"

Miss Emans is well known to all B. and P. W. members as the editor of the state magazine "California Woman." She is a valued member of the Southern California Edison company staff at their main offices in Los Angeles. Although the work of her division is of a clerical nature, she recently studied law and was admitted to the bar last fall. She believes a thorough knowledge of law is very helpful in the pursuit of many vocations.

the activities of the district federation during 1928-1929, the thought underlying all of her work being the creating of a better spirit of cooperation, friendship and understanding.

In 1929 Miss Ethel Carroll of Oxnard was the district's choice for president and with her characteristic efficiency and enthusiasm she is directing the organization through a most successful year.

LEADERS PLAN FOR NATIONS FESTIVAL

Upland Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls Preparing Booths of Many Nations

Plans and preparations for the Festival of Nations to be given on the Chaffey campus on May 10 were given a decided impetus on Wednesday night at a meeting of the leaders and board members of the Chaffey Girls Organizations.

Reports of the progress of the work were very encouraging and a festival of wide appeal is assured. Various booths will be established in and before which there will be various displays of products and scenes typical of the country represented. There will be strolling players, folk dances, folk songs and street market scenes, of Southern Europe.

In several booths native foods will be served. Russian, Japanese or Chinese tea may be secured, or for those of very discriminating taste, there will be real Turkish coffee.

Upland Troop No. 10, Girl Scouts, will maintain an Egyptian booth with pyramid, sphinx, etc. Troop No. 9 will represent Germany, and another junior high troop will have a Spanish booth, with a real bride just from Spain with shawls, embroidery, etc.

The Tatapochin Campfire Girls, Mrs. Bess Jones leader, will have an American Indian booth, and are receiving advice from Chief Standing Bear.

Wahwahantay Campfire Girls, Mrs. Lorraine Loch leader, are preparing an Alaskan booth. Many other of the girls clubs throughout the Chaffey district are planning booths and exhibits for the colorful event.

CHAFFEY Y.W.C.A. ELECTS OFFICERS

Address by Elizabeth Hawkins and Wiener Roast Feature Meeting

Chaffey Y. W. C. A. girls gathered at the Boy Scout lodge in Upland Wednesday night, the meeting being marked by an election of officers, a wiener roast and an address by Miss Elizabeth Hawkins of Upland, student at M. S. C.

The officers elected and who will enter upon their duties as such at the opening of the second semester next year are Madeline Martens, president; Elroy Mitchell, treasurer; Helen Shields, secretary and Ruth Sprinkle, membership chairman. Sarah Bess Koch, elected in January, will be president at the opening of school in September.

The girls built a camp fire and roasted wieners, enjoying an outdoor supper.

Miss Hawkins spoke to the girls of her experiences while a journalism student at Columbia University in New York, and, as she is well able to do, kept her audience well interested and amused throughout her address.

LINEMEN FALL BUT DEATH IS MISSED

Upland Scene of Workmen in Accidents; Rancher Is Trampled by Team

Twenty-five feet high up on a telephone pole and a climbing spike failed to take hold was the experience of Allen Williams, Ontario, who today is in the San Antonio community hospital, suffering from spinal injuries.

An employee of the Ontario-Upland Telephone company, Mr. Williams was working at Central avenue and Arrow highway yesterday when he fell to the ground. Definite extent of his injuries was not known, although it is believed they will not be permanent.

H. S. Bridgen, Ontario, Southern California Edison company employee, was working near the top of a 45-foot pole at Sixteenth street and Mountain avenue, when the safety belt snapped and he fell to the ground. What is considered a miracle, Mr. Bridgen was not injured other than a few sprained muscles.

Bee Editor Visits

William Atchley

George W. York, editor and publisher of Bees and Honey, a trade magazine, was in Upland today visiting William F. Atchley and going with Mr. Atchley on a visit with the bee men in the county.

Through the efforts of Southern California honey producers, Mr. York was induced to move his publishing office from Seattle to Monrovia and he will in the future be a Californian.
